

This ruling does not help the public interest, which is what the FCC is set up to protect. I understand that it will help business, but that is not the charter of the FCC. This will make media less accountable and limit the access of the public to diverse media outlets. I oppose the proposed relaxation of ownership rules, and would urge the FCC to do the same.

Sincerely,

Rizwan Pasha, M.D.
Beavercreek, OH